Re: Case No. C-06-3606 JCS

Dear Judge Spero:

At the suggestion of Karen Hom, we are writing this letter to respectfully request we be allowed to attend the status conference by telephone scheduled on January 19th at 1:30. As I mentioned to Ms. Hom and to Mr. Zeff, our 14 year olds son recently sustained a heart attack and subsequent surgery. Due to this emergency, we have been unable to obtain a new attorney to represent ourselves individually or for LVR Holdings. In addition to the medical implications, this has created a great deal of stress for us as we help our son and family adjust the various changes going forward. We therefore would ask the court if the mediation could be scheduled after April, which would give us the time to hire a new attorney and participate in the preparation of the mediation without the anxiety of our sons' medical situation.

Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Richard Cutshall
